The A120 joins the A12 at Threshelfords

Following much consultation and speculation, the Highways Department announced in February 2005 the proposed upgrade of the A120.

The new route is a dual carriageway, two lanes in each direction, starting at the existing Braintree Bypass and running across open country to cross the London to Ipswich railway line and join the A12 just north of Feering.

*Threshelfords to Stansted - dual carriageway
Threshelfords to Cambridge - dual carriageway
Threshelfords to London - direct, via the A12
Threshelfords to the M25 - direct, via the A12*
